

yesMinister's monitoring service

The media interest

- Given the increasing media interest in the sector and the large number of news stories in the press we have launched a new monitoring service to help you stay on track of all the latest news and developments related to employment and skills.

The service

Our new service consists of four monitoring updates,

- The Daily Monitoring Service
- The Weekly Monitoring Service
- The Quarterly Index
- Updates during the Queen's Speech, Budget and Pre-Budget

The daily monitor

This will be sent to your email inbox each morning and contains;

- WHAT THE PAPERS SAY, A summary of all the newspaper stories that day, relating to employment, skills and training,
- IN PARLIAMENT TODAY, An update on relevant items taking place in Parliament that day,
- PUBLICATIONS TODAY, Links to relevant publications, both Government and Non-Government released that day

The weekly monitor

Sent to your email inbox every Friday afternoon & contains;

- THE WEEK THAT WAS, a summary of all the main employment, skills and training news,
- OPPOSITION POSITION, an update on the position and policy of the opposition parties,
- THIS WEEK IN PARLIAMENT, a summary of all Committees and Debates,
- LEGISLATION TRACKER, update on the progress of relevant legislation this week,
- EARLY DAY MOTIONS (EDMs), a list of all the EDMs regarding employment and skills,
- DEPARTMENTAL ANNOUNCEMENTS, Collection of all relevant department announcements
- PUBLICATIONS, A collection of relevant publications for the week,
- CONSULTATIONS and CALLS FOR EVIDENCE, relevant consultations and calls for evidence

Quarterly Index

This will be sent to your email inbox, every quarter it will collate and index

- All the publications for that quarter,
- All the key Government announcements.
